On the 15th of August 2020, Government College of Engineering Salem - 11 hosted a vibrant celebration to honor India's 74th Independence Day. Organized by the NCC Airwing, the event at this esteemed venue echoed with fervor and pride for the nation's freedom.

The ceremony commenced with the unfurling of the national flag, reverberating with the essence of patriotism. The highlight of the celebration was the captivating performance by NCC cadets who showcased impeccable drill sequences. Their synchronized movements and disciplined display mesmerized the viewers, symbolizing unity and dedication to the country.

Following the inspiring drill sequences, the event concluded with a meaningful tree plantation drive. The tree plantation served as a poignant reminder of the commitment to
