Tree plantation and Independence Day celebration

On the 15th of August 2020, Government College of Engineering Salem - 11 hosted a vibrant celebration to honor India's 74th Independence Day. Organized by the NCC Airwing, the event at this esteemed venue echoed with fervor and pride for the nation's freedom.

The ceremony commenced with the unfurling of the national flag, reverberating with the essence of patriotism. The highlight of the celebration was the captivating performance by NCC cadets who showcased impeccable drill sequences. Their synchronized movements and disciplined display mesmerized the viewers, symbolizing unity and dedication to the country.

Following the inspiring drill sequences, the event concluded with a meaningful tree plantation drive. The tree plantation served as a poignant reminder of the commitment to sustainability and environmental stewardship.

The tree plantation event was a symbolic gesture, underscoring the importance of preserving nature and nurturing a greener future. It exemplified the fusion of patriotism with the responsibility towards the environment, aligning with the principles of progress and harmony.

The celebration organized by the NCC Airwing of Government College of Engineering Salem - 11 was a testament to the spirit of unity and pride among the students. It not only commemorated India's freedom struggle but also emphasized the importance of collective action towards nation-building and environmental conservation.

The amalgamation of the NCC cadets' mesmerizing drill sequences and the meaningful tree plantation event encapsulated the essence of the occasion. It instilled a sense of responsibility, citizenship, and commitment among the attendees, fostering a deep appreciation for both the country's heritage and the environment's well-being.

Lifestyle of environment

The NCC Airwing of Government College of Engineering Salem organized a transformative program focused on instilling environmental consciousness among 18 participating cadets. This initiative aimed to underscore the pivotal role of lifestyle choices in shaping a sustainable future.

The program encompassed diverse activities curated to educate and empower cadets in championing environmental stewardship. Workshops, interactive discussions, and practical sessions were conducted, emphasizing the significance of adopting eco-friendly practices and their impact on environmental preservation.

Cadets delved into topics such as waste management, resource conservation, and the importance of renewable energy sources. They explored the feasibility of integrating sustainable practices into daily routines, aiming to reduce carbon footprints and promote a greener lifestyle. Moreover, the initiative fostered a sense of responsibility and leadership among the cadets, encouraging them to propagate these learnings within their circles of influence. It positioned them as advocates for sustainable living, aiming to inspire peers and communities to embrace eco-conscious habits.

By leveraging the platform provided by the NCC Airwing, Government College of Engineering Salem instilled a sense of environmental responsibility, nurturing future leaders committed to fostering a healthier and sustainable planet through conscientious lifestyle choices.

Save soil awareness program

In the year 2021, an impactful initiative called "Save Soil" reverberated through Salem's New Bus Stand, driven by a coalition of 20 committed flight cadets, orchestrated by the 5 TN AIR SQD (TECH) NCC, Save Soil.org, and the 12 TN BN NCC - Salem (Army Wing). This collective effort aimed to raise awareness about the critical importance of soil conservation and sustainable practices. The venue, chosen strategically for its accessibility and visibility, served as the canvas for various educational activities and demonstrations. The initiative encompassed informative sessions, interactive workshops, and engaging displays highlighting the significance of soil conservation in maintaining ecological balance. The flight cadets, with their dedication and enthusiasm, played a pivotal role in executing the campaign. They actively engaged with the public, disseminating information about soil degradation, its impact on agriculture and biodiversity, and the urgent need for preservation. Practical demonstrations on composting, soil testing, and techniques for minimizing soil erosion were showcased, educating attendees on actionable steps for soil conservation in their daily lives.

Anti – tobacco day awareness program

The NCC Airwing of Government College of Engineering Salem orchestrated a compelling campaign to observe Anti-Tobacco Day, involving the participation of 12 dedicated cadets. This initiative was designed to shed light on the detrimental effects of tobacco use and advocate for a tobacco-free lifestyle. The program encompassed various activities aimed at raising awareness and educating both the college community and the public about the perils of tobacco consumption. The cadets organized seminars, interactive sessions, and awareness drives within and outside the college premises, disseminating information about the health hazards associated with tobacco use.

Moreover, they creatively employed posters, banners, and informative pamphlets to amplify their message, emphasizing the importance of quitting tobacco and preventing its initiation among youth.

The cadets' efforts extended beyond the event, as they committed to ongoing advocacy, encouraging peers to adopt healthier choices and providing support for those aiming to quit tobacco addiction. Their commitment and dedication exemplified a strong stance against the widespread use of tobacco products.

Through this initiative, the NCC Airwing of Government College of Engineering Salem not only commemorated Anti-Tobacco Day but also ignited a sustained conversation and collective action toward building a healthier, tobacco-free community, showcasing the potential of youth-driven initiatives in combating societal health challenges.
